HALIBURTON - ONTARIO THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14TH, 1972

THIS WEEK'S PRESS RUN — 2907

Established in 1882 as the Minden Echo & Haliburton Recorder

Former Haliburton Girl Wins $65,000 Lottery

Santa arrived a week early for a Downsview woman and her three children last Saturday when a phone call from Ottawa told Cynthia Shaw, the former Cynthia Pearsell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pearsell of Haliburton, that she had just won $65,000 in a municipal lottery.

"This is going to be the happiest Christmas ever," Mrs. Shaw, 31, said. "The money will give this family a security we haven't had before."

She has been struggling to raise her children alone since she was divorced six years ago. She works as a secretary at Canada Bread Ltd., and she plans to keep on working.

Mrs. Shaw's name was pulled from a drum of 175,000 names as the first-place winner in a lottery to raise funds for a recreation centre in Nepean Township on the outskirts of Ottawa.

"I don't think I will really believe we won until the money is in my hand," Mrs. Shaw said. She was to fly to Ottawa on Tuesday to accept a cheque from the township.

For a mother raising three children on $110 a week, buying a new winter coat is often no more than a dream, but Mrs. Shaw plans to have that dream come true this week.

The Shaw children — Tony, 14, Sherry, 12, and Cathy, 9 — know that $65,000 is enough to let them leaf through a department store catalogue with a lot more interest.

"We have often looked through the catalogues together, but not with any seriousness. Now it is different," Mrs. Shaw said.

She bought the $2 lottery ticket nearly a year ago from Jovanka Mihajlovich, who works with her at Canada Bread. Mrs. Mihajlovich wins $5,000 for selling the winning ticket.

Hallowe'en Pranks Land Three Youths In Court

Hallowe'en pranks landed three Coboconk youths in Provincial Court in Lindsay this week and sent them home with fines and orders to pay for the damages they caused.

Lloyd Edward Harris, 17, was fined $25 for wilfully breaking a window in Riverside Motors and another $25 for breaking a window in Shields' warehouse. In addition, he was ordered to pay $20 for the broken Shields window and $3.35 for the Riverside window.

Bradley Robert Lytle, 18, was fined $25 for breaking up $30 worth of signs for Colonel Coby's Restaurant and another $25 for burning a $7.95 garbage pail belonging to Elizabeth Cowie. He was also ordered to pay $7.95 for the destroyed garbage container and half the cost of replacing the broken signs.

Roy Laverne Bowins, 21, was fined $25 for breaking a window in Shields' warehouse and another $25 for breaking the restaurant signs. He will pay the other half of the replacement cost for the signs and $5 for the broken warehouse window.

Assistant Crown Attorney Howard Morton told the court that five windows, with a total value of $100, had been smashed at Shields' that night and three windows, with a total value of $10, had been broken at Riverside Motors.

Minden Man's Assailant Being Held In Winnipeg

Toronto Detectives were on their way to Winnipeg late last week to pick up a jail escapee who is charged with assaulting and robbing a Minden area man who was found dead in a Toronto hotel last month.

The wanted man, being held by Winnipeg police, is David Allan White, 34, who allegedly escaped from the Waterloo County Jail.

William Morgan Alexander Mark, 53, of R.R. 2, Minden, was found dead in an elevator in the Waverley Hotel on November 21. There was a large cut behind his left ear.

An autopsy showed that Mr. Mark had died of a heart attack.

Police believe Mark was assaulted and robbed in his hotel room on the third floor but managed to reach the elevator before collapsing.

Local Boy Heads Election Poll

We received word this week that Glen Fairey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Fairey of Haliburton, was returned to his seat on the Council in the recent Municipal Election held at Callander. We are also happy to report that he led the polls. Congratulations, Glen.

NO ECHO NEXT WEEK

We would like to take this opportunity to inform our readers, advertisers and the correspondents that we will not be publishing a paper during Christmas and New Year's. This means that there will be no issue of the Echo next week. The office and plant will be closed during this time.

The next issue of the Echo will be dated January 4, 1973, and we will endeavour in the coming year to keep you up to date on what's new in the Highlands.

ROTARIANS AT WORK — Hoisting the Christmas tree is Youth Committee Chairman John Postlethwaite along with the help of fellow Rotarians Jim Csanig and Jim Scheffee. The tree is now in place with many coloured lights for the Christmas season and will remain until after the upcoming Winter Carnival festivities.

Dysart Council Hold Meeting

Minutes of the Regular Meeting of the Dysart Municipal Council held in the Council Chambers, Haliburton, on Monday, December 18, 1972, commencing at 9:00 a.m. All members of Council were present.

The following is the business arising at this meeting:

(1) That the Minutes of the meetings of November 10th, 13th, 27th and 28th, 1972, be adopted as read. Carried.
(2) That Tuesday, December 26, 1972 (Boxing Day), be declared a holiday throughout the municipality. Carried.
(3) That Dieter Balke be permitted to install a sewage line under the municipal road to accommodate the requirements of the Health Unit at his holdings on Little Farquhar Lake; said work to be performed under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the Road Superintendent. Carried.
(4) That "Whereas the recent enactment of Bill 90, an Act to provide for the protection of persons in industrial establishments brings arena structures in the Province of Ontario directly into safety legislation and regulations; And whereas a great percentage of arenas erected in post-war years could not conceivably meet the standards of Bill 90 and the guidelines prepared jointly by the Ministry of Labour and the Association of Professional Engineers and therefore extensive alterations or construction of new arenas throughout most of the province will be essential; Now therefore be it resolved that the Honourable Minister of Treasury, Economics and Inter-Governmental Affairs be urged to provide substantial capital incentive grants to municipalities for the repair of existing arenas or the construction of new arenas with a view of providing economic stimulation in the coming winter months similar to the Ontario Government Day Care Building Programme 1971-1972 which under certain conditions made provision for provincial capital grants of 100% on all approved capital expenditures." Carried.
(5) That the meeting be now adjourned until 1:30 p.m. for lunch. Carried.
(6) That due to cut-backs in provincial assistance, and existing equipment being worked to capacity, snowplowing services will not be extended beyond what

Santa Claus Is Coming To Town

Santa Claus is coming to town. Yes, Santa will be paying his annual visit to Haliburton this Saturday, December 23, at 2:00 p.m. when all the young people will gather to meet him.

This year's Christmas Tree has been placed atop the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce for all to enjoy. The big event is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Haliburton and Royal Canadian Legion Branch 129.

For the skaters, the Rotary Club hope to have an outdoor rink in operation in the ball park out in front of the Haliburton Arena very soon. But everyone's help will be needed to develop this beautiful illuminated area.

Junior 'D' Hockey Game Cancelled

The Central Ontario Junior 'D' hockey game between Haliburton Huskies and Fenelon Falls that was scheduled for the Haliburton Arena this Saturday night, December 23, has been cancelled due to the fact that the Fenelon Falls entry has dropped out of the league because of poor attendance at their home games.

The next home game for the local Huskies will be on Saturday, December 30, when they will play host to Bobcaygeon.

Bowling

Ron Robinson Jr., captain of the Modern Electric bowling team in the Men's Commercial Bowling League, led his team to victory over the Rockcliffe Beer Nuts with a fantastic 966 triple. The triple consisted of singles of 333, 275 and 358. This has to be one of the finest exhibitions of bowling in this league ever. Ron not only bowled the highest triple possibly ever bowled in this league but also captured the high single so far this season of 358 and upped his league leading average to 243. Corgnatulations, Ron, and continued great bowling in the future.

Huskies Report

with CLIFF BURKE

Tim Curry netted three goals in leading the Haliburton Huskies to a 7-5 victory over Bobcaygeon in Bobcaygeon last Friday evening, and Floyd Henry, John Wilson, Bill Leary and Rick Wood rounded out the scoring for the Huskies. Bobcaygeon led 2-1 at the end of the first period but Haliburton came back with four unanswered goals in the second. The Huskies then hung on for the win although being outscored 3-2 in the third period.

In Haliburton on Saturday night the Huskies made it a four-point weekend when they downed the visiting Bancroft Juniors 4-1. Jeff Campbell, Rick Wood, Floyd Henry and Bill Leary handled the scoring for Haiburton and Scott scored the lone Bancroft goal in the first period. Haliburton opened the scoring at 2:35 of the first period on Campbell's goal and Wood put the home team up 2-0 at 17:31, only to have Bancroft cut the lead back to one at 18:15 when goaltender Dennis Good lost sight of the puck at the side of the crease. The local Huskies scored one in each of the second and third periods to win easily in a rather sloppy hockey game. The officials handed out 11 minor penalties and one major to each team.

Haliburton Huskies statistical leaders are Rick Wood leading in goals with eleven, Jeff Campbell in assists with fourteen, and Tim Curry is the overall point leader with seventeen on eight goals and nine assists. Penalty leader is Larry LaPorte with 34 minutes. Goalie Lewis O'Hara has the best goals against average with 2.02 compared with Dennis Good's 3.00.

Minor Hockey

The Haliburton PeeWees moved to within four points of first-place Fenelon Falls last Thursday evening when they dropped Bobcaygeon 3-1 in Bobcaygeon. It was Dwight Sisson leading the Haliburton attack with two goals while Bernie Nicholls added a single.

In Novice action on Friday evening, Minden moved four points up in first place when they downed Haliburton 4-2. Minden got off to a fast start in this contest and built up a 4-0 lead at the end of two periods. However, they had to hold on in the third as Haliburton came out flying and hitting. Mark Grier tallied twice for Minden while singles went to Harold Porter and Lelsie Booth. Haliburton scorers were Scott Jackson and David Nichols.

The Haliburton Novices travelled to Bobcaygeon on Saturday and came away with a hard fought 3-1 victory. Bobcaygeon took the lead early and it looked like they might steal a 1-0 decision, however, Haliburton got untracked in the third to win 3-1 on goals by David Nichols, Jim Lee and Tony Scheffee. The win moved Haliburton up into second place three points behind Minden.

H.H.S.S. News

The Haliburton boy's basketball teams played host to the Fenelon Falls teams on Thursday, December 14. The Junior team fought a closely contested battle, but lost to Fenelon by a score of 59-41. Ken Stouffer did a good job for the local Juniors. The Haliburton Midgets did very well, winning their game 50-43, with Paul McCrea and Andy Dube being standouts in this game. The Seniors again were defeated by a narrow margin, 55-47. The next league game is on January 11 in Lindsay.

Congratulations to the Grade 11 Home Economics students who last week prepared a variety of international dishes.

LIKE, WHAT'S NEW, PUSSYCAT?

One of my wife's students brought in some old newspapers, and I found them fascinating.

FOR GOD AND HOME
AND NATIVE LAND
VOTE OUT THE SALOON
AND THE LIQUOR STORE

Thus cried out the Globe of Toronto on October 18, 1919. It had a circulation of 86,547. It had 24 pages. Count the liquor advertisements in your today's big city newspaper.

Things were not so much different sixty-two years ago, aside from the booze question.

The Irish had two front-page stories. There was "nearly a settlement on the Irish problem". "Hands were extended but they were never gripped", and the Sinn Fein political prisoners were released from Mountjoy Prison as the outcome of their hunger strike. Like, what's new?

START WAR ON DRUG TRAFFIC read another headline. There was to be a $1,000 fine for improper use of narcotics. Apparently the opponents of prohibition were scattering a leaflet purporting to show that since Ontario went dry "the use of drugs has increased to alarming proportions."

But the only drugs they were concerned with were those oldies, opium, cocaine and morphine. Apparently our granddads were not acquainted with pot, hash, horse and speed. Or perhaps they didn't use slang terms. Anyway, what's new?

Another headline stated: LITTLE FIGHT LEFT IN REDS. The whole article revealed that the revolution in Russia was just as good as over, and the "reds" had had it. I wonder if Stalin or Kruschev read that, and what they thought.

There was an election on. The Globe, as it still does, tried to tell its readers how to vote.

On page 1, there is a box, with a facsimile of the ballot, and the paper urges every reader to vote No to every question on the referendum. About booze, that is.

Every story about the election is slanted toward the Tories, against the Liberals, and against booze. So, what's new, except the booze adverts?

In a desperate four-column twenty-inch advert, the Liberals try to separate the political issues and the booze issues. Not a hope. What's new?

The rest of the front page could have been printed yesterday. Trouble all over the world. Gold-dust galore from the Yukon. Lloyd George carried to his university chair by students, led by a ragtime band (except that today he'd have been humiliated and led by a rock band). Somebody's wife, with a certain lack of novelty, had presented him with his third set of twins. And similar garbage.

THE WEATHER. Same old jazz as we get today. "Probabilities: Fair weather; stationary or higher temperature." In other words, it's going to stay miserable or improve. What's new?

But the real fun of an old newspaper is the advertisements, as they are today. Even then, the auto manufacturers took a lot of space. You had the choice among the Gray Dort, the Franklin, and something called the Lexington. But the copy hasn't changed much.

Instead of power brakes, you had the "one-finger emergency brake". Instead of anti-freeze, you had the Franklin's "Direct air-cooled. No water to boil or freeze." Wonder what happened to that one? And instead of the 120 per cent performance promised for today's cars, the Gray Dort ad said it would take care of 80% of a motor car's work. Wonder what happened to that copy writer.

But among the names are many old, familiar ones. Mason & Risch. Phonographs? Kellogg's Corn Flakes. Shirriff's Marmalade. Horlick's Malted Milk. Red Rose Tea.

And the all-too-familiar ads in tiny type for aids with dandruff, piles, under-arm hair remover for ladies, kidney pills, liver pills, rheumatic remedies. What's new?

There isn't exactly an entertainment section, as such, but the King Edward Hotel offered a dinner deluxe for $1.50, with music by Romanelli's orchestra. The Alexandria was presenting ROADS OF DESTINY with Florence Reed. And the Princess suggested La La Lucille, with music by George Gershwin. Evenings, $2.00. Matinees, from 50c. This was live theatre. At Shea's there was a nine-act vaudeville show. Prices? 25c to 50c. What's new? I should tell you?

And in a coloured supplement of the time, there are full-page ads for such things as chewing gum, Bon Ami for whitening your shoes, Borden's Milk, and Pebeco tooth-paste. Can you believe? In a recent Macleans, Canada's "national magazine", there were 126 pages of writing and just over 20 pages of liquor advertisements. So what's new?

Mrs. Lola McColl and Vera Riel were in Lindsay on Thursday.

Mr. Blair Riel has returned to his job in Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Dack visited in Lindsay last week.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Caroline Savitz is in the Haliburton Red Cross Hospital. We hope that she improves rapidly and can come home soon.

We are glad to hear that Gwen Kennedy is back home with her family after spending a few weeks in hospital.

I would like to extend Season Greetings to everyone from our village, and may 1973 be the best year we've all experienced.

Gooderham News

This community has recently lost one of the old time residents, Mrs. Mary Ellen Graham, who passed away in her 74th year. She came to this area and settled on a farm at Bear Lake at the age of 19, and had lived there ever since. Her early home was in the Province of Manitoba, where two sisters still reside. She leaves a family of five children, Glen of Gooderham, Mossom of Gooderham, who still resides on the family farm, Dorothy (Mrs. Charles O'Shea) of Smiths Falls, Ruth (Mrs. Stanley Burnett) of Peterborough, and Mary (Mrs. Hilliard Parsons), also of Peterborough. Deepest sympathy is extended to the family and relatives.

We hope for the speedy recovery of Floyd Dovell, who recently suffered a severe heart attack, and after being taken to the hospital at Minden was later taken to Toronto by ambulance.

We have certainly had our share of snow. The sideroads and driveways are particularly difficult and the roads slippery, so drive carefully, especially so when visibility is poor. But more of this later. Your reporter is now preparing for a trip to Toronto.

UNITED CHURCH WOMEN MEET IN WILBERFORCE

The Wilberforce United Church Women met at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Miller on Wednesday, December 13, with 14 members and eight visitors present.

The President welcomed the group, and then called on Mrs. Norma Noble for the Devotions. Mrs. Noble began with the poem "Put Christ Back Into Christmas" and asked everyone to join in the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. Mary Henry then read about the nativity of Christ from St. Luke, chapter two. A demonstration on bells and the part they play all through our lives was interesting. Mrs. George Earle and Mrs. Noble followed by singing a duet entitled "I heard the bells on Christmas Day". Devotions ended with a prayer.

After a short business period, the meeting was brought to a close with the Benediction.

As this was the annual Christmas Party as well, the President asked Mrs. Clarke to take over the program, which included some lively games, and then the usual exchange of gifts was made. The hostess, Mrs. Miller, has had the party for ten consecutive years, and as usual served a delicious lunch.

Mrs. Sally Mather proposed a vote of thanks to Mrs. Miller, and to Mrs. George Earle who has been President for the past four years, and she is now to be succeed by Mrs. Pat Clarke and a new slate of officers.

Mrs. Earle would like to take this opportunity to thank those who helped her during her nine years in office. Best of luck to the new executive.

CAN WE UNDERSTAND THE BIBLE ALIKE

1. The question should be, "Can we understand the Bible?"
(a) If we understand it at all, we WILL understand it alike.
2. Some dismiss religious division by saying, "We can't understand the Bible alike."
(a) The only way religious unity can exist is by all people understanding the Bible alike.
(b) Jesus' prayer for unity is based upon this premise.
3. We can and do agree one hundred per cent upon:
(a) Twelve inches equals one foot.
(b) Sixteen ounces equals one pound.
(c) Two plus two equals four.
(d) Why? Because we accept the same standards of measurement, weight, math.
4. The Bible declares that we can understand it alike (Eph. 3:4; 5:17; John 8:31-32).
(a) Would God, who created the mind, give us a book the mind could not understand?
(b) Would He command us to study a book we could not understand (II Timothy 2:15)?
(c) Would He require that we "speak the same things" if we cannot understand it alike (I Cor. 1:10)?
5. We can understand the Bible alike if we study with an open mind and willingness to obey whatever God tells us and omit that upon which the Bible is silent.
(a) God's word will judge (John 12:48). We MUST understand it!

FINER THAN PAGAN CELEBRATIONS

True Christians have something finer than pagan celebrations. They have the "fruitage of the spirit", which is "love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faith, mildness, and self-control" (Galatians 5:22,23). This fruitage produces a generosity that is much more beautiful and genuine than the "Christmas spirit" that blooms just once a year. Jehovah's spirit produces kindness and unselfishness that can plainly be seen every day of the year. This prompts Christians to give, not with the hope of repayment or because they are pressured into it, but out of genuine Christian love (Luke 6: 35,36; Acts 20:35). Real Christians can give gifts and have good times together throughout the year. As Jesus said at Luke 6:38, "Practice giving." Parents do not have to wait for birthdays or for Christmas, but they can bring gifts to their children at various times during the year. This makes for many happy occasions instead of one or two. Further, the children know that it is their parents who are giving them the gifts, doing so out of love for them. This helps to cement the bond of love between parents and children. Moreover, children are not encouraged to be unthankful to man or God because of thinking that they are entitled to receive gifts on certain days (Colossians 3:14). Learning the truth about the pagan origins of popular customs can have a marvelous liberating effect. No longer does one feel obligated to follow practices that have proved to be a burden, financially and otherwise, to people of the world. And, most important, our knowing the truth frees us to pursue the course that is pleasing to Jehovah so that we may find everlasting life in his righteous new system. Jesus showed this at John 8:32 when he said, "And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." And as Paul says at Romans 6:21-23, "What then, was the fruit that you used to have at that time? Things of which you are now ashamed. For the end of those things is death. However, now, because you were set free from sin but became slaves to God, you are having your fruit in the way of holiness, and the end everlasting life. For the wages sin pays is death but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord."

Here Are Some Toys The Tots Will Want

By GORDON GRANT

It's been a busy year for Canada's toy designers and manufacturers. They have been working around the clock to fill Santa's pack with the biggest load of toys ever this Christmas.

Toymakers are predicting a 10 per cent. increase in sales this year. And old Nick's sleigh will not only carry more toys and games than ever before, but it will be bulging with improved quality as well.

Realism will be the accent on toys this year.

This is especially true with dolls. Dolls must be as realistic as possible because little girls do not just "play" with them. In their imagination, dolls become real. They become babies whom the girls can mother and love.

FOR SYMPATHY

And besides being make-believe babies to the girls, dolls also act as closest friends. They are always willing and waiting to listen patiently to a little girl's problems, to extend sympathy or to side with her after her parents have scolded her "wrongly."

This is why toy manufacturers do everything possible to make dolls look, feel and even sound human.

One toy manufacturer has gone so far as to create a bilingual doll! She's called "Chatty Cathy," and her vocabulary consists of 11 full phrases such as: "Hello, mummy, here I am."

Another toymaker is featuring the "Kissy Doll."

The "Kissy Doll" will bring happiness to any little girl who wants love and attention—for "Kissy" will pucker her lips for a big kiss, accompanied with the appropriate sound effects, whenever her arms are spread sideways.

Another doll expected to please many Canadian youngsters is the "Thumbelina," a soft doll which wriggles in realistic fashion when wound up by a key on her back.

Two dolls—Barbie and her boy friend Ken—are small in size but sell for about $3.50. Clothes for them run as high as $5 a set. And they have 30 different outfits!

Boys aren't being neglected by toy manufacturers. There will be many new varieties of trucks and cars, "official" six-shooters and rifles, and electric trains waiting for them under the Christmas tree.

Not new, but expected to be a big favorite with boys this Christmas, are the racing car sets.

These sets provide two model cars with drivers, a two-lane track layout, two remote control hand-throttles, fences, curbs and overpass supports.

SPACE TOYS

There is a sports car set with chicane obstacle strip that permits only one car to pass without collision.

The cost of these car sets puts a dent about $25 to $40 wide in Santa's pocketbook.

More popular than ever are the thousand-and-one kinds of space toys. Space helmets, space guns, space suits, space explorer compasses and even realistic space satellites are bound to make a big hit with all budding astronauts on Christmas morning.

Also selling well are the various educational games, such as those which teach the tots how to add, multiply, divide and subtract.

And the children need not go into a mental dither if they cannot figure out the answer to one of the mathematical questions—it's supplied electrically to them.

Homework was never like this!

No wonder it has been a busy year in Santa's workshop! Santa's elves would have to work overtime to build all the toys on this boy's list alone.

Christmas Joy

SOMETHING FOR ALL

REV. Phillips Brooks is generally referred to only as the lyricist of the beloved hymn, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" (with music by Lewis Redner). He should also be known for this inspired verse:

EVERYWHERE, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
Christmas in lands of the fir-tree and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm-tree and vine,
Christmas where snow peaks stand solemn and white,
Christmas where cornfields stand sunny and bright.
Christmas where children are hopeful and gay.
Christmas where old men are patient and gray,
Christmas where peace, like a dove in his flight,
Broods o'er brave men in the thick of the fight;
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
For the Christ-child who comes is the Master of all;
No palace too great, no cottage too small.

Greetings

Have a serene and happy holiday season.

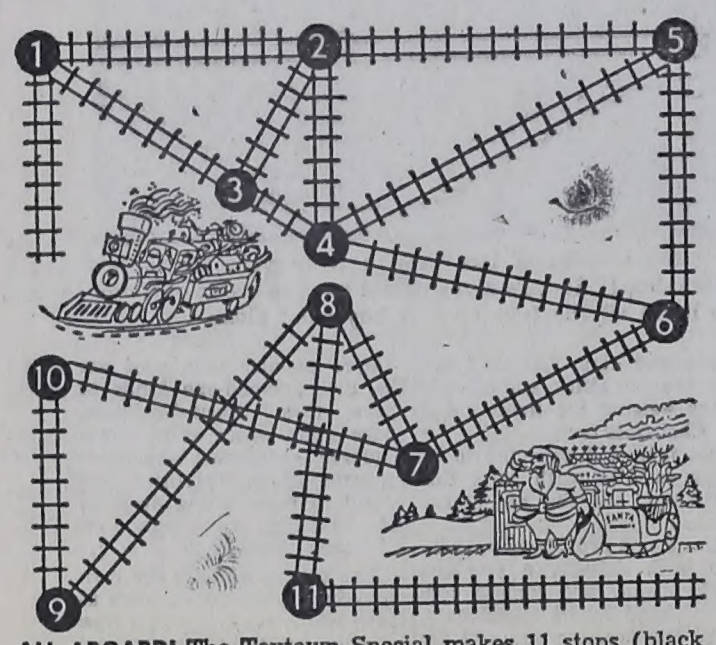
Can You Size Up Kith and Kin?

AT A FAMILY Christmas dinner there were two sisters and their two brothers, two mothers and their two sons, two single girls and their mothers, two fathers and their two daughters, two grandmothers and their two granddaughters, and, lastly, two husbands and their wives. Sounds like a crowd, doesn't it? Yet all of them were seated at one normal-sized table, for the total was six. How could that be?

Answer: There were two widows, each of whom had a son. Each had married the son of the other. Each had had, by these second marriages, a daughter.

IS EVERYBODY HAPPY? Well, not quite. There are two dozen persons pictured in the diagram above and all but one is smiling. You are asked to take a nose count of persons present and to point out the unhappy face. Hint: Turn the diagram every which way to find all the faces, natch.



ALL ABOARD! The Toytown Special makes 11 stops (black dots) en route to Santa's station. How quickly can you find a route that reaches St. Nick pronto? Oh yes, one route—known only to the wily engineer—is definitely a shortcut. See if you can discover this mileage-saving path.

Answer: Shortest route is one, three, four, two, five, six, seven, ten, nine, eight, eleven.

ONCE AGAIN THIS JOYOUS SEASON OF THE YEAR HAS COME.

LOOKING BACK, IT HAS BEEN A REWARDING YEAR, MAKING US MORE HUMBLY APPRECIATIVE OF ALL OUR FRIENDS.

LOOKING AHEAD, IT IS A TIME TO REMIND OURSELVES OF THE DESIRE OF ALL MEN FOR PEACE AND GOOD-WILL, AND OUR PART IN BRINGING IT ABOUT.

WE WISH YOU THE MERRIEST CHRISTMAS EVER AND A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

TO MY CONSTITUENTS

DEAR FRIENDS:

ONCE AGAIN IT IS THE TIME OF YEAR WHEN PEOPLE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD CELEBRATE, EACH IN HIS OR HER OWN WAY, THE GLORIOUS FESTIVAL OF CHRISTMAS.

IT IS A TIME WHEN WE TEND TO LOOK BACK AND GIVE THANKS FOR PAST BLESSINGS, AND TO LOOK FORWARD WITH HOPE AND ANTICIPATION TO WHAT THE COMING YEAR MIGHT BRING.

IN SPITE OF ALL THAT HAS BEEN DONE TO IMPROVE THE LOT OF MANKIND, NONETHELESS WE LIVE IN AN IMPERFECT WORLD. THERE ARE MILLIONS OF PEOPLE WHO ARE DISPLACED AND DISPOSSESSED AND THERE ARE PEOPLE WHO ARE LONELY, ILL OR DISADVANTAGED.

I BELIEVE SINCERELY THAT CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP IS STILL THE STRONGEST FORCE IN THE WORLD TODAY, AND SO I BELIEVE THAT THERE IS REASON TO HOPE AND THERE IS REASON TO WORK TOWARDS THE ENDS OF PEACE AND GOODWILL.

WHILE YOU ARE CELEBRATING, AND GIVING THANKS FOR THE BLESSINGS YOU HAVE RECEIVED, I WOULD ASK YOU TO GIVE THOUGHT TO THOSE AROUND YOU WHO ARE LESS FORTUNATE. BY SHARING WITH THOSE WHO HAVE LESS, YOU WILL NOT ONLY SERVE THEM, BUT YOU WILL AT THE SAME TIME BE SERVING GOD AND YOURSELVES.

I WISH ALL OF YOU A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HEALTH, HAPPINESS AND PROSPERITY IN THE COMING YEAR.

SINCERELY,

WILLIAM C. SCOTT, M.P.

manners are seldom proof against temptation." T. B. Macaulay had remarked earlier of "Ye diners out from whom we guard our spoons."

In earlier times, I was to learn, travelers were accustomed to carrying spoons and knives of their own, either because cautious city hotels, country inns, or boarding-houses did not supply them, or for sanitary reasons. There was a popular assumption some of the wayfarers purposely carried spoons with extra-long handles, to insure their being able to reach competitively with, or to the disadvantage of, other diners, into bowls from which all had to help themselves. It became an adage, "He must have a long spoon that must deal with the devil."

Among oldest of American historical or souvenir spoons were those sold at the Centennial Exposition, Philadelphia, 1876, (a George Washington medallion in the design), but there are commemoratives of earlier events in America, such as Columbus' voyage of discovery, the landing of the Mayflower Pilgrims, etc., just as there are of Old World events, in an assortment of coffee, dessert, or ladle sizes.

Spoons have been among the souvenirs of many coronations. The interval between an accession to a kingship or queenship and the traditional coronation rites has favored production of such items. A rarity prized by a collector is one of spoons produced in anticipation of formal enthronement of Edward VIII at London, in 1937—an event cancelled out by Edward's abdication in 1936.

ODDLY, there appears to to be no corresponding number of souvenir forks.

A British historian asserted that forks were virtually unknown in England in 1611, when a venturesome Briton urged upon his countrymen adoption of the table implement referred to above. "An Italian cannot endure to have his dish touched with fingers, seeing that all men's fingers are not alike clean." He explained a gentleman provided himself with a miniature of the two-tined stable fork. The British historian referred to above remarked that his countrymen's reaction to the innovation was typically British. "Who would make hay of his food and pitch it into his mouth?" was one metaphorical question. There were contemptuous allusions to "miserable fork-bearers."

However, an English book of etiquette published in 1653 reflected a European-wide capitulation. Its author conceded it was "comely and decent to use a fork at the table." Thereafter, it was evident, pretentious persons added silver forks to the encased eating implements they carried about as badges of gentility, or "status symbols," to use a modern phrase. They were recorded among possessions even of conservative Puritans in Massachusetts before 1650.

Best wishes for Christmas

Sips Do Count In Taste Test

DETERMINING whether your friends have "good taste" is an interesting and often amusing party pastime. Arrange to have ready a number of different liquids, such as ginger ale, vinegar, coffee, tea, chocolate milk, grape juice, grapefruit juice, beer, water, root beer. Place four or five of these in identical glasses in a row upon a table and blindfold the person who is to take the test. Hand the glasses to him in turn, asking him to sip each without taking time to smell it, and identify the content. If he is given a tangy drink such as the grapefruit juice first, chances are he'll not have much success in identifying the others.

FAMILY GATHERS FOR REVEILLON

A French-Canadian Christmas

By GERALD McDUFF

French Canada celebrates Christmas with a middle-of-the-night supper.

It's the "Reveillon", a family gathering when savory dishes often prepared weeks ahead of the Yule season from old recipes are served to as many as 40 people at a time.

The automatic freezer and the supermarket have changed many of the customs involved in storing the larder with food for the "Reveillon" festivities. But in rural areas the housewife will start making "tourtieres" (spicy pork pies), "cretons" (a French Canadian specialty of seasoned drippings), doughnuts and sugar pieces weeks ahead.

HICKORY STUFFING

Today turkey is the main course but some still have goose, stuffed with hickory or butter nuts gathered the previous fall in the woods. Dinner will also include wild cherry or ginger wine and spruce beer.

Baking for the Christmas supper will begin as early as December 8, the Roman Catholic holy day of the Immaculate Conception with the daughters and daughters-in-law holding a cooking bee at the parental house.

The "Reveillon" is strictly an adult affair. The children are sent to bed before their parents leave for Midnight Mass. The meal is served about 2 a.m. and is followed by singing and the opening of gifts.

In homes where old traditions linger, children receive their gifts on New Year's Day. The presents are left in socks by the fireplace. And even in the wealthiest homes, the presents will be practical—a sweater, a pair of socks or galoshes.

But the influence of English-speaking Canada has made its mark. Formerly, young children were told their presents came from the infant Jesus.

Today they are up early Christmas morning to see what they got. However there is usually a "Creche" Manger.

The tree was introduced in Quebec about 50 years ago and like Santa Claus has gained in popularity since.

AT THE MANGER

On Christmas afternoon, the children will be brought to church where they will leave a donation at the manger for "L'Enfant Jesus."

On New Year's Day the head of the family will bless each of his children as a wish of health and prosperity of the New Year Pere Noel has left under the tree. —"La Benediction", as it's called, is given by the father to his sons.

The celebrations will continue throughout the Christmas and New Year's season with suppers being held at different homes each Sunday until as late as the week of Ash Wednesday.

On Little Christmas Day, many families crown a king and queen who are chosen by being lucky enough to find some beans in a cake especially prepared for the occasion.

After weeks of eating, drinking and visiting, French Canada tops the season with a last fling on Mardi Gras. Then it tightens its belt for Lent.

At a French-Canadian home, children who find a bean in their cake are crowned king or queen.

A Pot Of Beans Is Eskimo Favorite Christmas Feast

By WALT MAKDATOR

Most Canadians, when they sit down to Christmas dinner, want to see the table laden with turkey, ham and rich plum puddings. Eskimos, however, would prefer to see—beans!

For on Christmas Day, many of Canada's 11,500 Eskimos, especially those living on Baffin Island, take part in a traditional Yuletide feast called a "Bean Feed."

This Christmas meal is prepared in a large pot, and can best be described as a bean stew.

"They use beans as the stable, then add meat . . . vegetables . . . everything they can to it," explained Mrs. Michael Gardener, wife of an Anglican missionary at Cape Dorset on Baffin Island.

Cape Dorset is typical of the four Anglican missions on Baffin Island and of the 16 others dotting the Arctic.

About 150 Eskimos are permanently settled at this mission, but the population doubles to 300 for Christmas.

BY DOG SLED

"About two days before Christmas, the Eskimos who live outside the mission begin arriving by dog sled. Some have to travel for three or four days . . . even longer," declared Mrs. Gardener.

In years past, Christmas was an ordeal for most Eskimos throughout the north since they lived in isolated places and had to travel great distances through the worst days of winter in order to attend Christmas services at a mission or settlement.

But today, more and more are taking permanent residence near mines, at air bases and on defense installations such as those along the DEW line.

There are still Eskimos who prefer to live far from settlements, content to continue hunting as in the old days rather than working for the white man or going on government relief.

Children of these families are brought into settlements, however, and placed in the charge of residential schools. One such school is the Roman Catholic one at Inuvik on the Mackenzie River, where the children are kept through the entire winter

On Christmas Day, these children are not able to join their families because of heavy snows, but they are made quite at home during the Yuletide holiday with a party and plenty of presents.

Constant contact with white men means that the Eskimo is rapidly absorbing the white man's religion, customs and speech. But they are still proud of their ways and language, and on Christmas Day rather than say "Merry Christmas," many still prefer to say

Not all white men's ways are easy for the Eskimo to follow. Caroling, for example, presents something of a hazard in the Arctic.

THIRTY BELOW

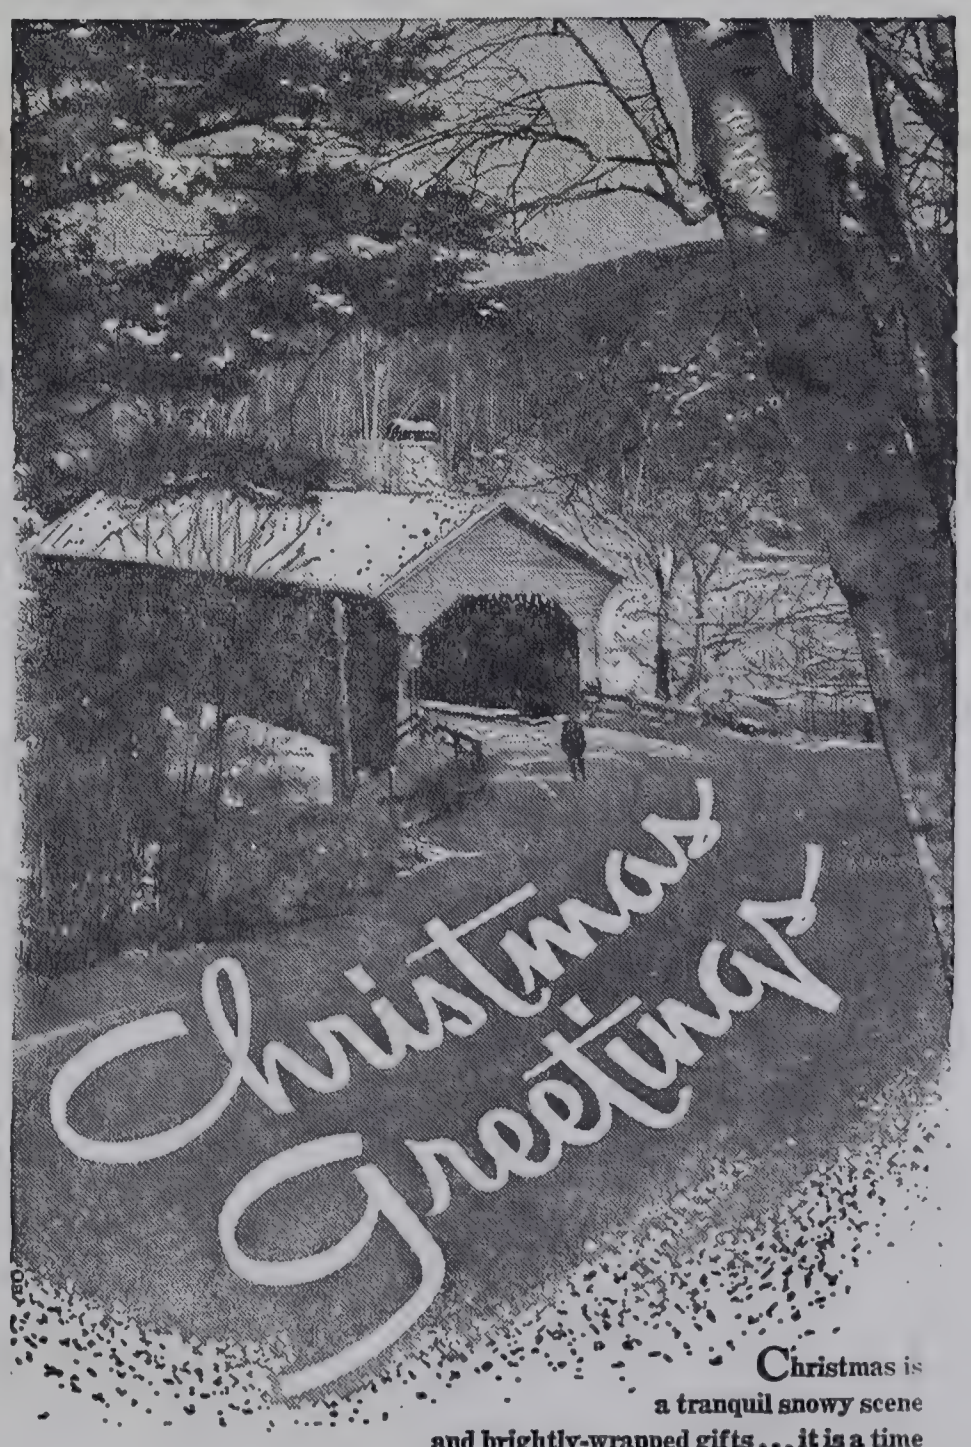
"Last year about 25 of our Eskimo teen-agers gathered to go carol singing," said Mrs. Gardener. "We sang the carols in the traditional way, going from house to house and singing from outside—even though the temperature was 30 degrees below!"

It's only recently that the Eskimos at Cape Dorset have accepted the custom of giving gifts at Christmas.

"When an Eskimo wants to give a present to another Eskimo, he knows the Eskimo would prefer a gift bought from a white man's store," Mrs. Gardener declared, "but when he wants to give something to a white person, he knows his gift will be more appreciated if he makes it himself."

Although Canada's Eskimos live on St. Nick's doorstep, they have been slow in accepting the old white-whiskered patron of Christmas.

When RCAF personnel at Resolute Bay air base, for instance, once dressed up a man as Santa Claus and brought him before the children at a party, the sight of the laughing red-robed Santa sent the Eskimo tots flying away in horror



Christmas Greetings

Christmas is a tranquil snowy scene and brightly-wrapped gifts . . . it is a time of hope and rejoicing for the many things it is our privilege to possess. We wish you an "old-fashioned" Christmas, filled with love and good cheer, and the deep satisfaction of friendships renewed. Happy Holidays!

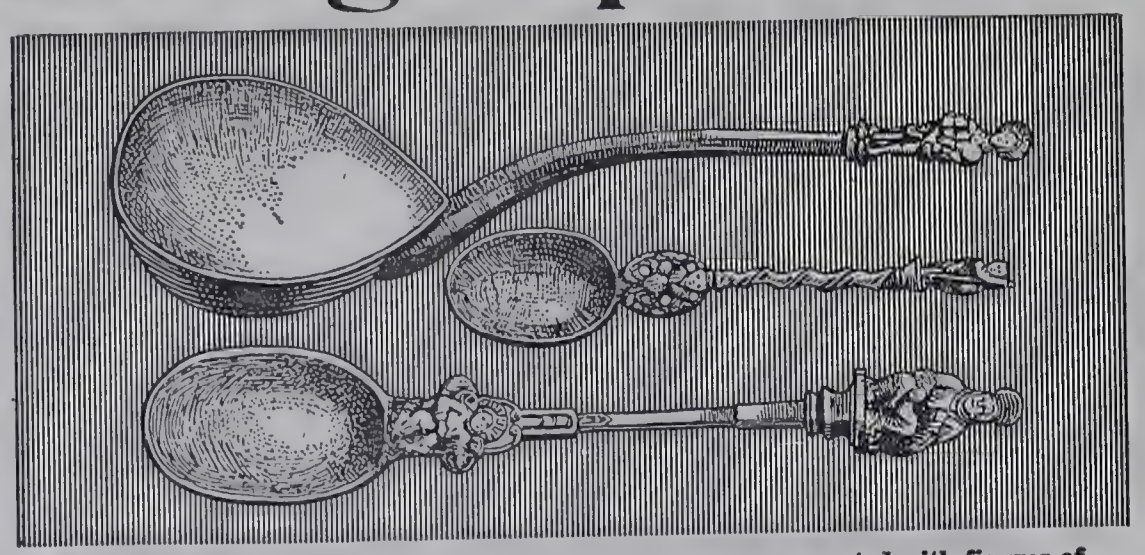
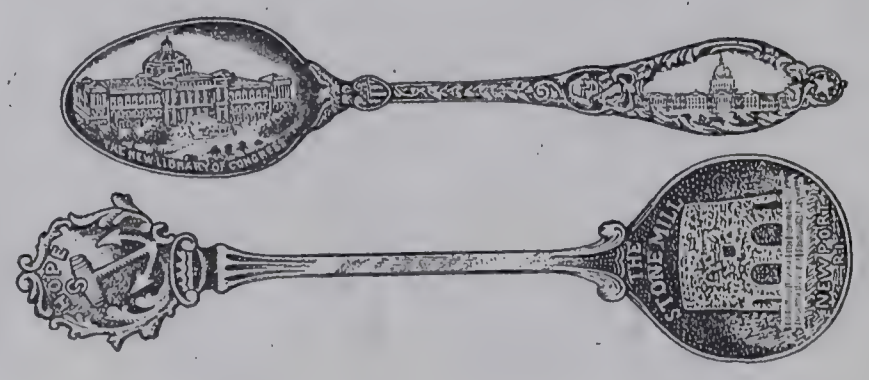
When you had to go Spooning

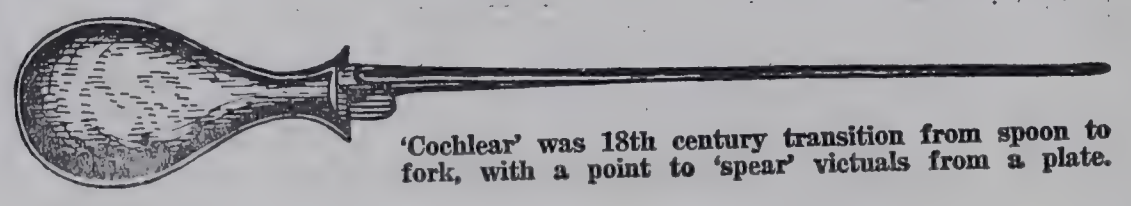
A caricature of big eater in days when traveler was accustomed to carrying implements with which to insure his helping himself from platters.



Among silver particularly prized by collectors: spoons ornamented with figures of Babe and Apostle, such as were christening gifts in Europe in the 17th century.



At right: Two examples of souvenirs of national monuments sold to early tourists: Library of Congress spoon; memento of stone mill at Newport of reputed Viking age.



'Cochlear' was 18th century transition from spoon to fork, with a point to 'spear' victuals from a plate.

By JULIET SHELBY

I REMEMBER childhood fascination with the spoon tray brought to the family table for ordinary breakfasts, dinners (then the midday meals), suppers. It had compartments for serving spoons, soup spoons, and smaller spoons of varied use. A handle rose from brackets screwed to middle partitions. This arrangement suggested to my younger brother's imagination a ship's masts, and mother was accustomed to finding the tray on the floor, with spoons arranged like guns on prow, port, starboard, and stern, to repel attacks by phantom pirates.

She never complained about picking up the spoons and rewashing them before father took his position as carver, server, and ex-officio dispenser of spoons as needed. Naturally, Tommy's playing with the spoon tray was not tolerated when my sister or I was a substitute for mother.

Spoons were the most used of tableware both by adults and younger folk in earlier times, when hearty meals included porridge, soup, stew, side dishes of vegetables, puddings, or desserts flowing with cream. There were no forks in common use until persons abroad followed a fashion among effete descendants of the Romans in the 17th century (such people were dubbed 'macaronis').

Elsewhere, it was common for a diner to hack for himself a piece of roast and spear it to his plate, or dip fingers into a salver for food that could be managed with a spoon or without drip on clothes.

Spoons and ladles were commonly of shell, carved wood or hollowed burl. Families "better fixed" had some of horn, tin, copper, brass, pottery, pewter. There were those, of course, who had wealth in silver spoons, and royalty whose exactions in taxes were exhibited in spoons of gold.

As late as the 18th century, a silversmith was an investment auxiliary who was given an individual's surplus silver ingots or coinage to be moulded into spoons, teapots, saltcellars, candlesticks, etc., that could be both impressive and utilitarian until the owner needed silver for commercial transactions or borrowings.

The phrase "Born with a silver spoon in his mouth," came from a proverb, "One man is born with a silver spoon in his mouth, and another with a wooden ladle." This became progressively less apt as wealth underwent distribution under reforms in the 19th century. Silver and silver plate was a proud possession of many more families, and souvenir spoons had their inceptions.

At our home, on occasion—always when there were invited guests—a drawer of the "sideboard" was unlocked, a velvet-lined box brought forth. We children were excited anew by mother's "Christmas spoons" and "souvenir spoons." A devoted friend of mother's adhered to a not unusual custom among families of European derivation. Each Christmas and wedding anniversary she sent mother two more silver spoons of the ornate pattern she had chosen for the purpose years ago.

MOTHER herself started collecting "souvenir" spoons at a world's fair; she was among an original group of hobbyist collectors of these who multiplied into thousands internationally. Father and older family members brought contributions from their travels. Thus, when dessert was served we children could choose a spoon that signified some historic person, place, or tour. The handle of one was surmounted by Eiffel Tower, another by St. Peter's of Rome, several with festive motifs, such as weddings. Like the distinctive plates distributed each Yuletide in Scandinavia, there were annual editions of spoons inspired by Christmas motifs or by other serious religious occasions, such as Easter.

After a dinner, when her spoons were displayed, mother made count discreetly. Not that she suspected the guests of appropriating any; she was apprehensive that one might have been disposed of with the table scraps or dishwashing. She may also have had subconscious memory of a confession for many Robert W. Chapman put into an essay, Silver Spoons: "When I dine out and find my soup embellished by a notable spoon, as may happen . . . my Early forks were often as ornamented as 'Apostle-spoons,' with religious scenes (as at right) or stately figures — including lampoons of jesters (left).

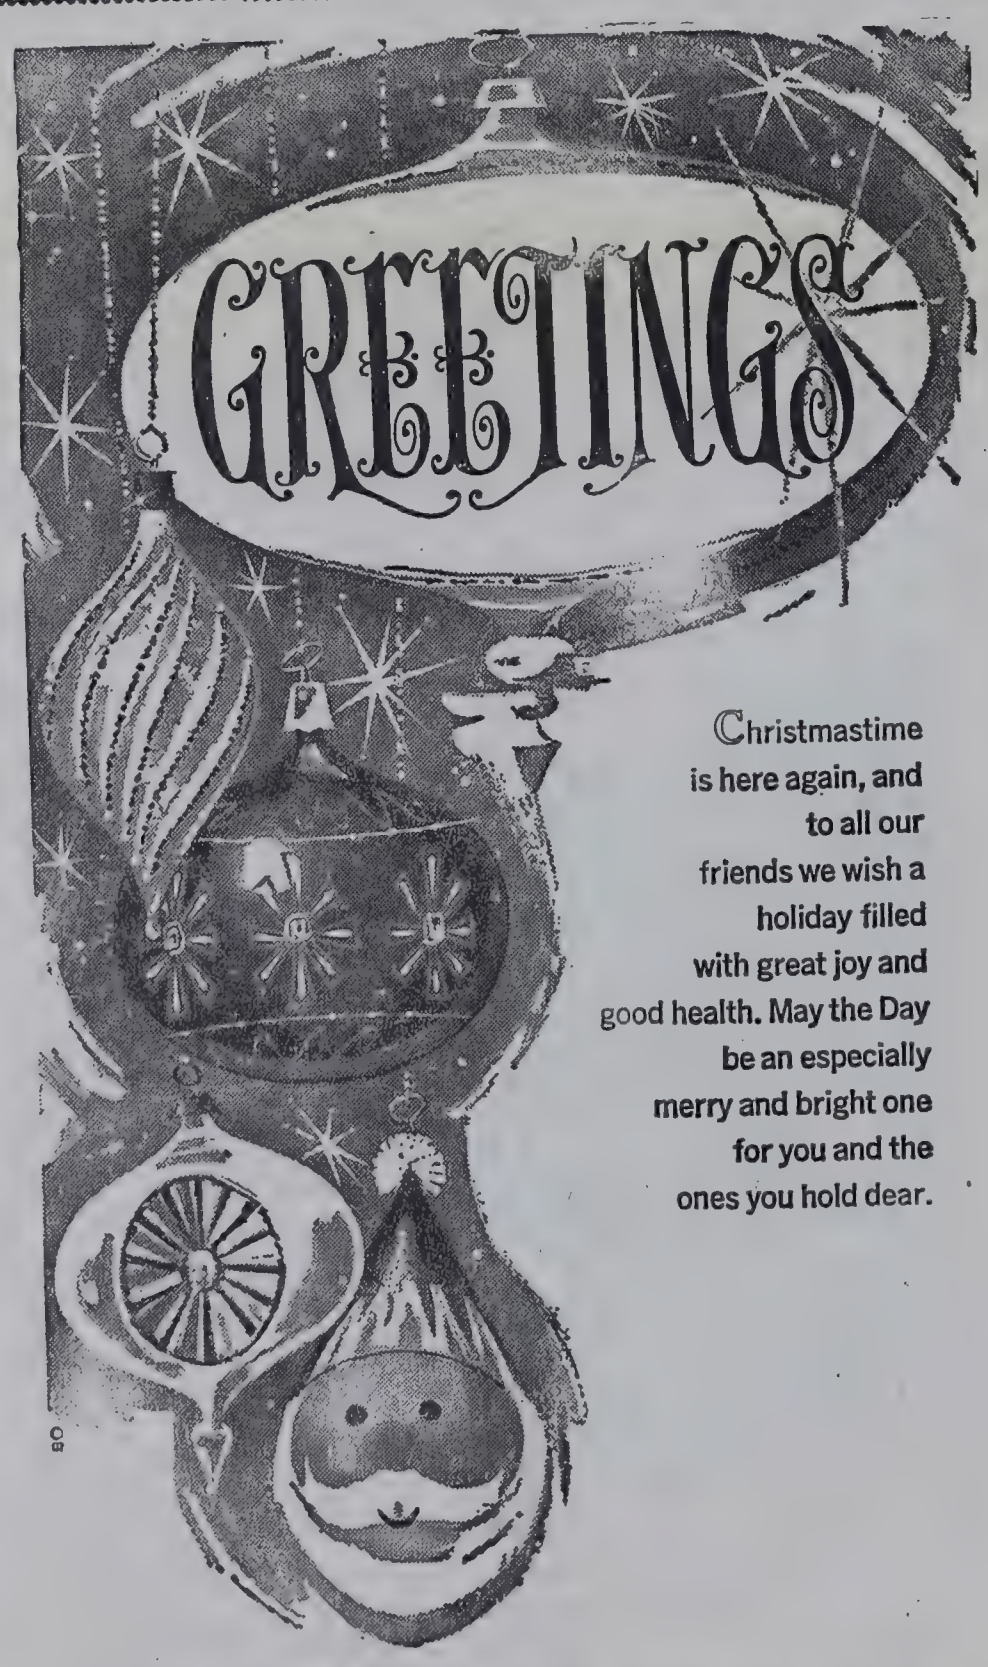
Everybody HELPS + Everybody BENEFITS



Christmastime is here again, and to all our friends we wish a holiday filled with great joy and good health. May the Day be an especially merry and bright one for you and the ones you hold dear.

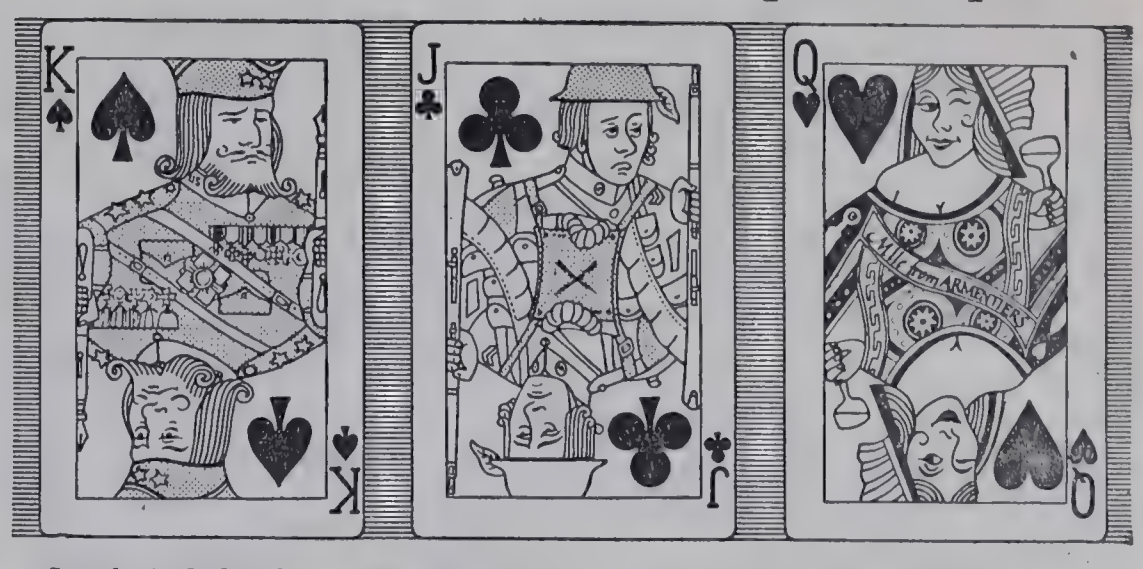
It's All in the Cards

Old decks tell about Yuletide parties in past

Elaborate hairdos were literally in height of fashion among 18th century French lady whistplayers.



In private decks of cards of 103rd Field Artillery, Yankee Division, World War One, a major general was king, a corporal was jack, Mlle. from Armentiers was queen.

BRIBE a queen regnant? Presume to give, her money as if she were a beggar? Nay, nay! One could have been locked in the Tower for such lese majesty.

To play cards with Her Majesty in such manner that she won substantial sums: that was permissible.

Elizabeth I of England expected there'd be cardplaying at whichever peer's castle she chose to favor with her presence during Yuletides. It was reckoned by a chronicler of Elizabethan times that the red-haired 'Virgine Queene' supported much of her display of jewels and other finery with 'gifts' from courtiers on these festive occasions.

Packs used in her realm unquestionably differed in suit designations and symbols from those in other countries in Europe into which cards were introduced from the Orient, apparently by returnees from the Crusades. Originally, they were implements of fortune-telling. Tarot cards of 20th century Europe and America are survivals of divining media of itinerant necromancers in Dark Ages.

Before the suits became conventionalized for whist and other games—principally in the 19th century — as clubs, diamonds, hearts, spades, there were varieties of others. Cups, swords, coins, batons, acorns, leaves, bells were some of them. In Spanish packs, cups were broad bowls; in Italian decks they were tall chalices.

At the close of the 13th century, manufacture of playing cards was a considerable industry in Nuremberg. One reason was popular development that cardplaying had undergone as a form of amusement in German principalities on such occasions as Christmas and New Years. Another cause was the exceptionally durable paper Germans produced. Playing cards actually served as currency where coinage was in short supply, as in European colonial possessions overseas.

Still another factor was the German advancement of block-printing in colors. Coster's and Gutenberg's epochal interchangeable types owed something to playing cards.

Elizabeth I was not the first English sovereign to tolerate subjects sitting down in her presence socially. Cards as festive pastimes had come in favor in reigns of Richard III and Henry VII, during the same 15th century in which playing cards went to the Americas with Spanish conquistadors.

Hessian soldiers who introduced Christmas trees into the United States during the War of Independence also brought German playing cards with them to the country where whist, pocaire (poker), and other games were to be enjoyed freely outside of Puritan New England—before the 19th century multiplied card-printing overseas and brought an American addition to decks: jokers.

Letters To The Editor

The Editor,
Haliburton County Echo,
Haliburton, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

I follow the events in the Highlands with great interest through the pages of the Echo. I just wanted to write at this time to express my appreciation for the work that you do and the service you provide. I especially enjoy the Letters to the Editor.

May I add my hearty AMEN! to the letter from Gay Fisher regarding the Christian Cross. Whether traditional, stake, or T is really immaterial to the person of faith. Mrs. Fisher has very ably driven home the application and meaning of the Cross to today's "do your own thing" crowd. The Living Jesus still calls us to "die daily" by taking up our own crosses and following Him.

Yours sincerely,
Noel McNeill.

Dear Sir:

You have referred to the apathy of the voters in the recent municipal elections, first when reporting the Candidates' Meeting and in the December 7th issue reporting the results of the Election.

I am writing to point out that the apathy is not chargeable to the voters, rather it is with those who live in the municipality and do not run for the offices that they are capable of filling.

You cannot expect the voters to bother with an election where the offices of Reeve, Deputy Reeve and all but one Councillor are to be filled by acclamation.

As a property owner and summer resident for many years I have met many very capable men and women who live in Dysart et al, and I feel sure that you would have much more interest on the part of the voters and a council that would be very responsive to the people if some of these good people will run for office.

When the area is placed under a regional government, do not blame the voters who were unable to choose their council.

Yours truly,
Eric A. Fuller.

UNCLE DUDLEY'S COLUMN

This time of year means very much to me, encompassed with memories over the long span of my life.

My father and mother were married on December 24th, 1884; my father's birthday was November 24th and my mother's on January 5th. Ida and I were married on December 25th, 1918, and our only son was born in January of 1924. As I look over the past, the full time Thanksgiving to Christmas is a great season for giving thanks.

I cannot agree with Byron —
The melancholy days have come
The saddest of the year
Of wailing winds and naked woods
And meadows brown and sere.
— Poor old boy, his porridge must have not set well that morning.

So much to be thankful for, I remember on the Anson Township farm the large bin of potatoes, a bushel or two of carrots, a large pumpkin or two, a few choice turnips, all stored in the cellar — the chief root crop for the stock was stored in the stables. Father always went the rounds of the stables about 9:00 to 9:30, as soon as he lit the lantern the old collie would rouse himself from his bed behind the kitchen stove and went to see all was well with the stock. The horses nearly always met us with a hearty whinney, knowing full well they would receive their gallon of oats. The old collie settled himself by the manger between the horses, and all was well here. The cow stable was visited and here in solid contentment the cattle lay in their comfortable straw beds, chewing away at their cuds. Although long ago, these fond memories of farm life were in a home where love and duty went side by side. I was trained for a life in a competitive world.

Yes, we have so much to thank a wonderful God, the one and only true God, Creator of the universe and judge of all men. We celebrate His birth in a manger, His life and death, but there is the bright Easter morn — the hope of all true believers.

Thank you all for your courtesies over the good year '72, and Violet joins in all good wishes for a MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Peace be with you!

C. P. Rogers,
Moorefield Acres.

Weaving Group Meeting Held

The November meeting of the Weaving Group was held in the Gallery of the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts, and the members brought samples of their weaving done since the summer course. The display was impressive and it showed the great enthusiasm of the workers for this craft and their ingenuity in exploring different techniques. Further work was done on Spanish lace.

In January the group will move to new quarters in the Lakeview School. The added space will give an opportunity to expand the activities of the group, and the looms can be left set up for experiment and practice. A blackboard is there as a teaching aid and cupboards are in abundance for storage.

There will be no meeting in December because of the holidays.

A.C.W. Group Hold Christmas Party

The Dorothy Clarke Branch of the Anglican Church Women at Haliburton held their Christmas Party at the home of Mrs. Madeline Austin on Tuesday, December 19. High score for euchre went to Mrs. Irene Howe and a lucky prize was won by Mrs. Ida Schell.

A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Joyce Williams.

Given Anniversary Dinner Party

There was a celebration at the home of Ruth and Hugh Alton of Minden last Saturday in their honour, it being the occasion of their 35th Wedding Anniversary. There were some twenty-five of their family and friends present for a delicious turkey dinner.

We add our congratulations to this couple.
